Academic Programmes/Concentrations newly included in the fourth round of ACP visits

<sup>2</sup> Including the BSocSc (Hons) in China Studies (CS) and the MSocSc (Contemporary China Studies) (MCCS) programmes which are both offered jointly by the Departments of GEOG, HIST, SOC and ECON. The CS programme had opted out from last round of ACP visit in December 2014 for a reason approved by the Senate and a separate ACP review was conducted for the Programme in October 2017. To maintain the overall integrity of the ACP review of this group of Department/Programmes, CS will rejoin the ACP visit in the fourth cycle as scheduled. The Programme's progress of improvement actions in follow-up to the recommendations of last ACP Report should be presented for Panel's evaluation in the fourth ACP visit.

<sup>4</sup> Department of History's and Department of Sociology's involvement will be limited to their participation in the Gender Studies Concentration which has been co-offered by the Faculty of Arts and the Faculty of Social Sciences since Semester 2, 2016/17

<sup>5</sup> Double-Concentration jointly offered by the Department of Journalism and Department of Computer Studies

<sup>6</sup> The four double-degree programmes are (i) BA (Hons) in Eng. Lang. & Lit and BEd (Hons) in Eng. Lang. Teaching; (ii) BSocSc (Hons) in Geography and BEd (Hons) in Liberal Studies Teaching; (iii) BA (Hons) in History and BEd (Hons) in Liberal Studies Teaching; and (iv) BSocSc (Hons) in Sociology and BEd (Hons) in Liberal Studies Teaching.
