

HKBU Student Ambassador Programme 2019 - FAQ

About the Programme

Q1: Do I have to spend a lot of time in being a Student Ambassador?

A1: You could select outreach activities that fit your time.

Q2: Am I suitable for being a Student Ambassador?

A2: All HKBU undergraduate students are welcomed. Why not give yourself a try and join our family!

Q3: What will Student Ambassadors do?

A3: A role model of the University! Student Ambassadors help promote the University to prospective students through school talks and visits and university events like Information Day, Commencement, Employer's Luncheon, etc. They will even be the models on our promotional materials!

Q4: What will I gain?

A4: Not only will you gain recognition such as appreciation letter and certificate, your presentation and leadership skills can be enhanced as well. Most importantly, you will meet a lot of friends from different faculties and departments!

Q5: What kind of trainings will be offered by the Programme?

A5: A variety of trainings will be offered to enhance students' communication, presentation, interpersonal skills as well as team work spirit.

Q6: Are there any special activities offered by the Programme?

A6: Besides the undergraduate outreach activities, Student Ambassadors may join the gatherings organized by our welfare team. There will also be job-related sharing sessions and workshop held by alumni.

HKBU Student Ambassador Programme 2019 - FAQ

About Application

Q1: If I am going for an exchange or placement soon, could I still apply for it now?

A1: Sure! You can join the team again when you are back from exchange or placement.

Q2: Can I be Student Ambassador if I am a year 3 student?

A2: All HKBU undergraduate students are welcomed except the final year students as the service period is from June 2019 to May 2020.

Q3: What is the selection process?

A3: Shortlisted applicants will be invited to attend a group interview in April. Academic Registry will notify the selected applicants by phone and email. Selected applicants will be invited to attend a programme briefing in late April.

Enroll NOW