- MGNT 7030 Seminar in Advanced Management (2,3,0)
Topics
 In this course, students will examine recent developments, key contemporary management issues, and current management literature with the aim of consolidating management and organizational concepts.
- MGNT 7040 International Management (2,3,0)
 This course focuses on how the process of managing applies across national and cultural boundaries, especially with a regional perspective. The emphasis is on multinational corporations and their managerial activities, but all types of international business operations and their environmental issues are covered.
- MGNT 7050 Managerial Skills (2,3,0)
 For most students, this class will be very different from any that they have taken before. The emphasis will be on developing an awareness of their own management skill level and systematically working through a number of readings, cases, and exercises that will lead them to become more effective. The class is highly interactive, and students will work on an individual project to document skill improvement at their current jobs.
- MGNT 7060 Strategic Management (2,3,0)
 Strategic Management is a big picture course that builds upon diverse business fields such as management, economics, marketing, finance, accounting, among others. This course deals with an organization's overall postures from both inside and outside. It provides students with an integrative learning experience by applying what they have learned in their separate functional courses. The purpose is to help students develop strategic management knowledge and skills, gain experience in using the tools for strategic analysis, and apply the concepts to the real world situation.
- MGNT 7070 Managing Change (2,3,0)
 Managing change has become the norm in today's turbulent business environment, and almost all organizations have faced large-scale changes. The current challenge, and the one addressed in this course, is to find ways to manage the change process more effectively. Using a case-based approach, we consider the common types of changes organizations pursue and what it means to manage those changes. The focus is on key, interrelated issues of when to change, how to enable change, and reacting to change.
- MGNT 7080 Managing People in the Public Sector (3,3,0)
 Public personnel management is widely recognized as a critical element of democratic society and effective public administration of a given city. Today, government and non-profit organizations are confronted with tighter budgets with limited funding and keener competition in the labour market. Recent changes in information technology, communication patterns, social issues, and demographic compositions have resulted in an increasingly use of privatization of some services such as outsourcing, franchise agreements, vouchers, and contracting. This course introduces to students, in addition to all relevant HRM issues and functions, major organizational behaviour theories and concepts.
