

PERM 2005 Exercise Physiology (3,3,1) (E)

Prerequisite: PERM 1006 Human Anatomy and Physiology

The course covers fundamental knowledge about the acute and chronic physiological responses in different biological systems of human participating in exercise. In addition, students will gain laboratory experiences that are vital to the understanding of the responses. The course aims to (1) enable students to learn the acute and chronic physiological responses, and its interrelationship, in biological systems that are essential for exercise performance; and (2) help students to acquire knowledge in basic physiological evaluation and assessment through laboratory practicum and independent works.

PERM 2006 Organization and Administration of Physical Education and Recreation (3,3,0) (E)

This course aims to give students a solid understanding of organizational theory and administrative process, to equip students with the knowledge and techniques of administration to improve programmes and to train students in problem analysis and problem solving in the areas of physical education and recreation. Upon completion of the course, students should have (1) the basic concepts in organization and administration of Physical Education and Recreation; (2) understand the different management processes; and (3) be conversant with the techniques and current practices used in sports organizations.

PERM 2007 Tests and Measurement (3,3,0) (E)

The course introduces the concepts of measurement and evaluation and their importance in decision making in physical education and recreation settings. It covers the skills necessary to make valid measurement decisions including criteria for test selection, test administration and data analysis and interpretation.

PERM 2016 Theory and Practice in Physical Education and Recreation (3,3,0)

Prerequisite: PERM 1005 Historical and Philosophical Foundation in Physical Education and Recreation

This course is to provide students with a social science foundation of recreation management and physical education through the examination of contemporary issues of recreation and physical education. Upon completion of the course, students should be able to (1) understand the roles of physical educators and recreation leaders in the provision of physical education and recreation services; (2) understand the concepts and practice in the provision of physical education and recreation activities; and (3) apply the concepts in analysing physical education and recreation activities.

PERM 2120 Theory and Practice in Physical Education and Recreation (3,3,0) (E)

Prerequisite: PERM 1110 Historical and Philosophical Foundation in Physical Education and Recreation

This course aims to (1) provide students with a social science discipline foundation to recreation management and physical education; (2) develop students' understanding of the theoretical basis of recreation/leisure behaviours that have practical implications to the performance of their future professional duties; (3) prepare students for their professional development as activity leaders, programmers, recreation managers/providers, policy makers and physical educators; (4) help students to develop a strong theoretical base for their subsequent studies in the course, and a firm base for their future professional practice; and (5) provide students an opportunity to examine contemporary issues of recreation and physical education from different disciplinary perspectives, including psychological, sociological, philosophical and management perspectives.

PERM 2170 Prevention and Care of Sports Injuries (3,3,0) (E)

Prerequisite: PERM 1120 Human Anatomy and Physiology

Upon completion of the course, students are expected to (1) identify the basic classification of injury etiology and mechanisms; (2) demonstrate the skills of proper handling of acute sports injuries; (3) have a solid understanding of indications and contraindications of treatments related to specific injury trauma; and (4) obtain a certificate of first aid and safety.

PERM 2220 Internship (2,0,2)
