FILM 4898-9 Honours Project in Film and Media Arts (6,,)

Prerequisite: FILM 2008-9 Film and Media Arts Practicum I and Film and Media Arts Practicum II (for Film and Video Production Projects); or FILM 4007 Advanced Script Writing (for Script Writing Projects)

An Honours Project is proposed and designed by the student, with the approval of a supervising faculty member, in an area related to the student's selected final major electives. The Honours Project involves the individual student in a creative pursuit and represents the peak of the student's creative achievements in the course. Students receive regular reviews of their progress from supervisors. The final project must be presented in production or written format and will be assessed by a panel of teaching staff. The proposed project categories may come from the following fields: film and video production, animation, scriptwriting, research, publishing/web design, creative strategy and multimedia installation. Prior to the approval of the project, the student must submit a written proposal. Assessment criteria include judgments on communication and artistic quality, and the creative use of electronic and digital media techniques. Workshops and seminars provide an informal forum to discuss progress in the work.
