

WRIT 4007 The Art of Creating Stories: (3,2,1)
Writing and Appreciation

The course will explore the art of storytelling by discussing the history and role of storytelling in humanities. Followed by introduction to the fundamental elements, i.e. character, point of view, structure, plot, tension and dialogue with selected examples from different genres and forms, a wide variety of fictions, poems and movies will be introduced in this class. Students will learn to appreciate the art of storytelling, and create their own work. At the end of this course, students will develop a series of creative work that show their unique voice by making use of strategies acquired during the process of learning. (This course is cross-listed as HUMN 4026.)

WRIT 4015 The Double Face of Creativity: (3,2,1)
Fact and Fiction

This course aims to demonstrate the interrelationship between fact and fiction in the writing of creative works through the examination and discussion of the historical fiction. While it is generally believed that fact and fiction are two different and sometimes even opposite writings which happen in different contexts, this course hopes to show that they are two sides of the same coin. Through a study of the historical fiction, students will see the creative aspects of a critical research, and how being critical is an important step towards creativity. (This course is cross-listed as HUMN 4027.)

WRIT 4016 Writing Diaspora in a Global World (3,3,0)

The course aims to provide students with a critical understanding of diaspora writings in Chinese and English in a globalizing world from historical, cultural and political perspectives. It exposes students to important works and issues of diaspora writing in different genres and enhances their ability to analyse the cultural politics and writing strategies in different works.

WRIT 4898-9 Honours Project I & II (3,,)

This course aims to engage students in an independent research in academic topic or the production of a creative work under the guidance of teaching staff throughout an academic year.
